Founded in 1871, Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club is host to a number of national and international regattas. Among these is the Seawanhaka Cup, nicknamed the Little America's Cup. The Club is open year round, with commanding views of Oyster Bay from its perch on Center Island. A full service boat yard, upscale dining options, overnight rooms, junior sailing program are some of the many amenities offered to a very stable and well established membership. It is a prime example of the American yacht club with an incredible history dating back more than 150 years.
